

"Adopt" a Global Partner

HOW TO ADOPT A GLOBAL PARTNER

1. Review the missionaries below and the Missions Team (missions@Fellowshiponline.com) with top three preferences.
2. Based on need, you will be assigned a missionary from your top three preferences.
3. The missionary will be notified, and you will be added to their monthly newsletters.

BEST PRACTICES

- Set up a time for your D-Group to FaceTime or Zoom with your partner.
- Pray regularly for your partner and their ministry. Let them know you are praying for them!
- Spend time with them when they are in the States. Visit when possible.

Brenton Witonski

Brenton and Deborah Witonski started Palacaguina Christian Academy (PCA) in February 2017. Located in the poorest region of Nicaragua, PCA's vision is to change a generation and give children a future void of poverty. PCA is the only bilingual, Christian school in northern Nicaragua.

Christy Owen

For over twenty years, Christy Owen has been a missionary working within the Deaf community in Tegucigalpa, Honduras. Currently, Christy serves with La Promesa Honduras, as a facilitator and project manager on a Bible Translations (Honduran Sign Language) team. She is also developing a therapy center and sensory gym to bring God's love into the healing process for children in trauma. Christy is an adoptive and foster mom to two beautiful girls.

Clay & Lauren Kannard (KIDS: Josh, Ava, Lila, Kian)

After serving and being discipled at Fellowship Cabot, God broke the hearts of Clay and Lauren for the state of the evangelical church in Italy. They now serve alongside Italian partners and their church in Rome, making disciples, planting churches, and training leaders throughout the nation.

Dave & Gloria Furman

Dave, Gloria, and their four children have lived in Dubai, United Arab Emirates for twelve years where Dave serves as the lead pastor of Redeemer Church of Dubai. They started the church in 2010 and have enjoyed pouring into the more than 60 different nationalities who attend the church. They've also been actively involved in church planting throughout the Middle East and beyond.

Debbie & Caleb Lucien

Caleb & Debbie Lucien have been working in Haiti since 1989. Currently, Caleb supervises staff who manage several schools, businesses, and churches in northern Haiti with Hosean International Ministries. They desire to see God transform Haiti from the inside, out.

Jack Meckfessel

Jack is originally from Little Rock, and a graduate of the University of Arkansas. Jack serves in Chiang Mai, Thailand at Grace International School (GIS) as the Student Ministry Coordinator. In his role, Jack has the opportunity to disciple and equip the students of GIS to love and follow Jesus.

Jessica & Hayden Taylor

Hayden and Jessica moved to Jinja, Uganda in January 2019. Together, they teach and mentor students at the Amazima School. They desire to see individuals and families transformed through the power of the Gospel.

Joel & Annie Sengoga

Joel and Annie live in Rwanda, where they identify, train and equip emerging Christ-centered leaders that have a heart for disciple-making. Through Divine Destiny, they train and unleash these leaders to transform their communities for the glory of God.

Jonathan & Michelle Walterhouse

Jonathan and Michelle serve with the Deaf Ministries Team at Converge International. They are believing God for a gospel-movement among every least-reached people group in our generation. Together, they are working diligently to train, equip, and send out more Deaf people to reach other Deaf with the gospel message.

Rachel Dennis

Rachel serves with Pioneers Ministries in Paris, France. Rachel seeks to share and live out the Gospel among the secular French and the people of Paris who, for many, have never before met a genuine Christian. Currently, Rachel is recruiting a team that will partner with Gospel-centered churches who seek to plant more churches in Paris. Our vision is to be "Light in Darkness in the City of Lights."

