

Adult Discipleship | Missionaries to “Adopt”

“How To” Adopt a Missionary for Your DGroup

1. Review the missionaries below
2. Contact Missions Coordinator (jcalhoun@fellowshiponline.com) with top 3 preferences
3. Based on need, you will be assigned a missionary from your top 3 preferences
4. The missionary will be notified, and you will be added to their monthly newsletters

Best Practices

- Become familiar with the missionary you are adopting (this can be done through newsletters, Facetime, email correspondence, etc.).
 - Set up a time for your DGroup to FaceTime with them
 - Pray consistently for your missionary, their family, and ministry. Let them know you are praying for them!
 - Send encouraging emails, notes, and videos
 - Spend time with them when they are in the States
-

Africa

Hayden & Jessica Taylor (Amazima Ministries, Uganda)

- For the past year, Hayden & Jessica have been teaching at a village through Amazima Ministries.

Joel Sengoga (Divine Destiny, Rwanda)

- Joel and his wife, Annie, live in Rwanda with their family. Joel serves as church planter and leader in Rwanda. Their family with Fellowship a few years ago through Fellowship Associates.
-

Asia

Eden S. (Thailand)

- Eden is moving to Thailand in September 2020 to work with Shear Love, as a hair stylist and educator. She will be training girls to cut and style hair, as an alternative to living on the streets.

Hatley & Kristi H. (Thailand)

- Hatley and Kristi run a business called Bliss. Through their company, they train young women how to clean homes as an alternative way to support their families. They have seen hundreds of lives transformed (spiritually and physically) through their ministry.

Jack M. (Thailand)

- Jack is moving to Thailand in August 2020, to serve as a Student Coordinator at Grace International School. He will be discipling and mentoring high school guys for the next two years.
-

Europe

Clay & Lauren Kannard (Italy)

- Hailing from Cabot, AR, the Kannard family resides in Italy. They now help Italians make disciples, plant churches, and train leaders.

Rachel Dennis (Pioneers, France)

- Rachel lives in Paris, and works alongside a team to minister to college students, make disciples and train future church leaders.
-

Central America

Brenton Witonski (Arete Schools, Nicaragua)

- Brenton and his family live in Nicaragua, and helped found Arete Schools. Their work helps provide education and sustainable lives for Nicaraguans.

Christy Owen (La Promesa, Honduras)

- Christy lives and works in Honduras. Her work helps empower an equip Honduran leaders, and strengthen families and community are vulnerable or high-risk.
-

North America

Karen Tuttle (JesusFilm Ministry, Florida)

- Karen is on staff with Jesus Film, and helps record Jesus Film projects, train missionaries how to use the resources, and leads Jesus Film Mission Trips.
-

South America

Caleb & Debbie Lucien (Hosean International Ministries, Haiti)

- The Luciens are serving locals through Christ-centered education, life skills training, and economic opportunity.